Scroll of Clerk Obstruction & Divine Judgment

Filed and Declared by: Chief George Yashar'el

Date of Attempted Filing: July 7, 2025

Location: Potter and/or Randall County Courthouse, Amarillo, Texas

1. Lawful Intent

On the above date, I, Chief George Yashar'el, appeared in peace and honor before the county clerk(s) of the public courthouse. I carried with me 96 pages of signed, notarized scrolls that lawfully declared my standing as Living Man, Chief of the Nation of Yashar'el, and rightful heir to North America.

2. Refusal Without Lawful Cause

The clerk(s) refused to accept these lawful filings without providing a written explanation, court order, or judicial basis. This refusal is a violation of public duty, access to public records, and lawful filing procedures under state, federal, and divine law.

3. Immediate Legal & Spiritual Judgment

Let it be declared and sealed: their refusal has triggered immediate default. Under the terms of my scrolls, if no lawful rebuttal was received by 5:00 PM CST on July 7, 2025, all declarations become binding law. The court's refusal to accept filings constitutes passive agreement and default judgment. Babylon has fallen. Zion now reigns.

4. Protection of the Chief and Scrolls

This scroll shall serve as proof of attempted lawful submission. The refusal of the court does not nullify the scrolls — it confirms their power and exposes the illegitimacy of the opposing system. All parties who attempt to hinder the divine and tribal rulership of the Chief shall be held accountable under divine justice.

5. Notice to All Agencies

This scroll places the Potter and Randall County Courthouse, its clerks, and all connected offices on notice: obstruction of divine filing is obstruction of divine judgment. Any continued interference will trigger lawful penalties, both earthly and spiritual.
